HOOP-LA

The hoop earring is this spring's latest fashion accessory. Considered by many to be the "little black dress" of jewelry, hoop earrings are popping up on celebrities and style mavens around the world. Classic hoops have long been a fashion staple for women of all ages. One reason is because they are so versatile. Hoop earrings can go from the office to a Girls' Night Out (downtown Rochester May 7 from 5-9pm) and can be worn with jeans or a stunning evening gown. When it comes to style and size of hoop earrings - anything goes. They can be small and simple or long and daring; they can be all metal or studded with gems.

Many women already own a pair of classic gold hoop earrings and usually one pair is never enough! Now is the time to take the basic hoop to a new level. Consider a larger sized hoop earring, a pair in a different metal or covered in the gem of your choice.

At HAIG'S OF ROCHESTER FINE JEWELRY, we have stunning hoop earrings in platinum, gold and sterling silver. One of our most beautiful sets of hoop earrings can be found on our web site at baigsofrochester.com. The earrings feature several small interlocking 14K white gold hoops for just $385.
