MAKING HISTORY

HAIG'S OF ROCHESTER FINE JEWELRY specializes in the unique and antique, but is continually evolving and engaging fresh ideas and creative updates inside and out. Several years ago, we moved from our longtime address at 436 Main Street in downtown Rochester to a permanent location at 311 Main. Our new home was and is a historic gem. The new location was restored to its C. 1918 appearance. While renovating we discovered the building's original recessed entry (with a piece of antique gum included!). Inside the store, we retained the brick walls, installed the original tin ceiling from 436 Main and added a lit glass block wall and spiral staircase. We are proud that the restoration won many preservation and architectural awards.

Recently, we gave the interior of our store a bit of a makeover. Come and see our NEWLY DESIGNED SHOWROOM. You may be interested to know that our antique wooden cases are also historic. Some come from the old Hudson building in downtown Detroit; others are from world famous furniture designer Herman Miller.

Additional ways we continue to evolve is to offer our customers great buys and unique finds. Our designers are always producing new and beautiful pieces of fine jewelry, and we are bringing back wonderful antique and estate jewelry from our many shows across the country. See for yourself and stop in this weekend during Downtown Rochester's Holiday Open House. For more information, visit us online at haigsofrochester.com.

P.S. Come see us this weekend at the GOODWILL ANTIQUES SHOW at the Michigan State Fair Grounds!
